YMCA of Rapid City Unveils Fall Program Guide Packed with Fun, Fitness and Family-Friendly Activities

RAPID CITY, SD - AUGUST 5, 2026 – The YMCA of the Black Hills announces release of its all-new Fall Program Guide, offering a wide variety of activities and programs designed to keep individuals and families active, connected, and thriving across the Black Hills this season.

From youth and tiny tot sports and swim lessons to group exercise classes and wellness workshops, the Fall Program Guide highlights opportunities for every age and interest. Families can look forward to engaging childcare programs, enriching arts and education activities, and seasonal events that bring the community together.

"Our Fall programs are about more than just activities — they're about building connections, developing skills, and supporting overall health and well-being," said Kristy Lintz, Chief Operations Officer. "Whether you're trying something new or returning to a favorite class, the Y is here to help you grow in spirit, mind, and body."

Key highlights from the Fall Program Guide include:

- Youth Sports: Basketball, soccer, flag football, and martial arts classes designed to teach teamwork and build confidence.
- Aquatics: Swim lessons for all ages and abilities, plus open swim times for family fun.
- Wellness & Fitness: Group fitness classes, personal training, and wellness programs to support healthy lifestyles.
- Award-Winning Childcare & Afterschool: Safe, engaging spaces where kids can learn, grow, and thrive after school.
- Special Events: Seasonal family nights, Halloween celebrations, and community gatherings.

The Fall Program Guide is available now online at: <https://shorturl.at/wZGZ0> Registration for programs is open, and members and community participants are encouraged to sign up early as spaces fill quickly.
